

Truffles Restaurant & Bar

 Ikeja, Lagos

Amidst the hasty and ever populated Ikeja horizon arises this contemporary styled structure. A project reflecting a blend of clean ideas, simple lines and interior sophistication; from its dark and geometrically patterned walls to the plush and comfortable seating, Truffles in Lagos creates an aura of elegance and style.

The indoor bar provides a spot for visitors to wind down; its appeal can be attributed to the marble décor and high stooped chairs as well as the use of space and interior lighting of the bar.

An outdoor sitting area constructed in mind for visitors to enjoy the feel of cool breeze while appreciating the cuisines available and the view of the landscaping; advances towards an urban boutique along with a yogoberry shop built specifically to cater to the sweet needs of its visitors.

The restaurant is borne from numerous design iterations and a well thought out geometry achieving a sense of class and a space ideal for relaxation and comfort while its location provides a convenience of some sort as a result of proximity to several other prominent establishments.
